HERE'S A LOOK AT WHAT WE'RE LEARNING!

Math

Students will continue to learn about charts and graphs over the next couple of weeks. Students will need to the difference between a tally chart, bar graph, pictograph, and picture graph.

Literacy

Students will use story elements when reading fiction books. They will need to know characters, setting, problem, and solution. They will also need to know question words such as Who?, What?, When?, Where?, Why?, and How?

Units

Students will begin learning about Habitats this week. They will need to know habitats such as Desert, Pond, Forest, Ocean, and Grassland. They will need to know animals and plants that are living and non-living in each. They will also need to know the four seasons and how plants and animals react to each season. A study guide is attached.

Students will be learning about poetry this week. They will need to know what a poem is trying to tell them (main idea). They will also have to know the speaker of the poem, the setting, the problem, and the solution.
